Sub: Registration guidelines for the ODD Semester (Academic Year 2020-21)

In addition to the notifications issued by various administrative offices in respect of the above subject from time to time, the following guidelines are being accentuated for information of the students.

- All students are advised to complete the registration process before 1st of August 2020 (as per the phases of registration indicated in Academic Calendar) so as to ensure undisturbed academic activities for them during the Semester.
- It may please be noted that students who have registered by the above date, will only be included in the Attendance Roll for the Semester.
- During the conduction of Online Theory & Sessional Classes, students whose names are included in Attendance Roll will only be allowed for participation in a live class.
- Students are being reminded that completion of registration at the beginning of the semester is absolutely essential for the sake of academic requirements.
- Compelling cases, if any, may be presented to the authority in advance for necessary review and consideration.
