NOTICE

The CGU Drawing and Painting Club invites you to celebrate the International Women's Day, 2025 with a Poster Competition.

"Strokes of Empowerment: Celebrating Women's Rights & Equality!"

based on this year's theme.

"For ALL Women and Girls: Rights. Equality. Empowerment."

Description:

International Women's Day (IWD) is celebrated annually on March 8th to recognize and honour the achievements, resilience, and contributions of women across the world, advocating their rights and acknowledging the challenges that women continue to face.

The day has its roots in the early 20th-century labour movements, with the first official observance in 1911. The event invites you to express your creativity and showcase the power of women's rights and empowerment through impactful visuals.

Guidelines for Participants:

The event is open to all the students.

All artworks must be original and reflect the theme.

You can present drawings, paintings, sketches, along with slogans and messages in the poster that gives a visual message on women.

Please carry your Art kits (Colours, Pencils, sketch pens, etc.), art sheets will be provided.

Meritorious art work will be suitably rewarded.

Participation certificates will be given to all the participants.
