NOTICE

The Space Club of C.V. Raman Global University invites you to participate in the weekly space activity (Project Pitching) on 29/03/2025. The weekly activity focuses on introducing students, especially those in their first and second years, to the basics of HAPS technology and its real-world applications in aerospace, communication, and remote sensing.

This event aims to:

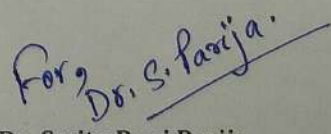

- To invite students to explore High Altitude Pseudo-Satellites (HAPS) and understand their real-world applications in aerospace, communication, and remote sensing. This event will provide an opportunity to learn, engage, and contribute to an innovative technology project.

All volunteers and participants may contact the president and club Student President and Club Secretary for the detailed event to be conducted during the event.

Venue: SPACE CLUB (EE402)

TIME: 3:30 PM
