ED-Recruit

The Entrepreneurship Development Cell (ED Cell) is inviting enthusiastic, creative, and motivated students to join the ED Cell Core Team and contribute to building a vibrant culture of entrepreneurship, innovation, creativity, and problem-solving on campus.

Core Team Recruitment

Students are invited to apply for the following teams:

1. Marketing & Management
 - Event planning & coordination, and marketing and promotion
2. Graphic Designing
 - Posters, creatives, promotional materials, and social media graphics
3. Content Writing
 - Social media, promotional content, event documentation and reports
4. Photography & Videography
 - Event photography, videography, video editing and event coverage

Who Can Participate?

- Students

Why Join the ED Cell Core Team?

- The ED Cell Core Team is more than an organizing team—it is a platform to learn, create, connect, and build.
- Through participation in ED Cell activities, students will get the opportunity to understand the entrepreneurial ecosystem, collaborate with like-minded individuals, interact with established startups, and transform their ideas and skills into meaningful initiatives.
- Interested one, fill the details at link: <https://forms.gle/NVLDM5beVWnpqwse9>

Venue: Announced Soon

Date and Timing: 12/09/2026, 10 AM onwards.
