The Student Services Centre shall function as a coordinated institutional mechanism for promoting student welfare, emotional well-being, mental health awareness, counselling, guidance and timely support.

The Centre shall endeavour to ensure that students have easy access to appropriate support services and that students requiring specialised intervention are referred to qualified professionals or appropriate external services, wherever necessary.

Key Functions of the Centre

The Student Services Centre shall be responsible for the following:

(a) To provide a single-window support system for student welfare, guidance, assistance and referral services.

- (b) To provide confidential counselling and mental health support to students through qualified counsellors, psychologists and other appropriate professionals.
- (c) To identify students who may require early intervention, psychological support or professional referral, while maintaining appropriate confidentiality.
- (d) To organise awareness and sensitisation programmes on mental health, stress management, emotional well-being, substance-abuse prevention, interpersonal relationships, life skills and healthy coping mechanisms.
- (e) To provide or facilitate academic, personal, career and psychosocial guidance to students.
- (f) To establish an appropriate referral mechanism for students requiring specialised medical, psychological or psychiatric services.
- (g) To maintain appropriate, secure and confidential records relating to counselling and support services, subject to applicable laws, University policies and privacy requirements.
- (h) To provide special support and timely assistance to students in distress, vulnerable situations, or facing adjustment, academic, personal or social difficulties.
- (i) To conduct periodic student satisfaction surveys, feedback exercises and needs assessments to evaluate the effectiveness and accessibility of student support services.
- (j) To ensure that students are adequately informed about the availability of and procedures for accessing counselling, grievance redressal, emergency assistance and other student support services.
- (k) To submit periodic reports to the competent authority regarding the activities of the Centre, utilisation of services, emerging student support needs and recommendations for improvement.
- (l) To coordinate, wherever necessary, with the Hostel Administration, Academic Departments, Medical Centre, Anti-Ragging Committee, Student Grievance Redressal Committee, Training & Placement/Career Development Cell and other student support bodies.

The Centre shall function in accordance with the rules, regulations, policies and guidelines of the University and applicable statutory/regulatory requirements. All matters relating to counselling and mental health support shall be handled with due regard to confidentiality, dignity, privacy and the best interests of the students.
