About Conference

ICEMDOPS-2027 is the 2nd edition of interdisciplinary International Conference on sustainable manufacturing, design and operational practices, which will help organizations migrate to a circular economic model and also efficiency enhancement. It will provide a forum for researchers, industrial fraternity, and academia to deliberate and exchange problems and ideas on the recent developments in technologies transforming industry through.

The scope of the conference includes evolutionary manufacturing, design and operational practices for environmental and resource sustainability opportunities but is not limited to:

Track 1: Prospective of Advanced Materials and Development for Sustainable Manufacturing

Track 2: Sustainable Innovation in Mechanical Design

Track 3: Heat transfer and fluid flow concept for Sustainable product development and their application

Track 4: Sustainable Operational Practices and Supply Chain Management.

Track 5: Artificial intelligence and machine learning in Mechanical applications.

About CGU

C. V. Raman Global University (CGU), Odisha, is a leading multidisciplinary institution committed to excellence in education, research, innovation, and societal development. Consistently ranked among India's top technical institutions by the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), CGU fosters quality education and impactful research. Through its Centres of Excellence, advanced research facilities, industry collaborations, and innovation ecosystem, the university promotes interdisciplinary learning, emerging technologies, entrepreneurship, and real-world problem-solving. CGU provides an inclusive academic environment that nurtures creativity, leadership, and lifelong learning, while preparing skilled professionals, innovative researchers, and responsible citizens to address global challenges and contribute to sustainable development.

About the Department

The Department of Mechanical Engineering at C. V. Raman Global University (CGU) offers an excellent academic and research environment supported by a well-equipped departmental library with extensive print and digital resources. Students benefit from state-of-the-art laboratories, interdisciplinary research opportunities, and collaborations with leading organizations, including IEEE, through national and international conferences. The department offers B.Tech., M.Tech., and Ph.D. programmes designed to address industrial, environmental, and societal challenges. Strong industry linkages, advanced computational and experimental facilities, and a research-oriented culture enhance learning. CGU also emphasizes internships, placements, entrepreneurship, and professional skill development to ensure excellent career prospects for graduates.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Author Guidelines - Paper Submission

Authors are invited to submit original and unpublished research work aligned with the themes of ICEMDOPS 2027 and it will be published in SCOPUS Indexed Journal. The submission process consists of two stages. In the first stage, authors are required to submit an abstract of not more than 500 words, clearly highlighting the objectives, methodology, key findings, and significance of the research. Authors of accepted abstracts will subsequently be invited to submit full-length papers for peer review and consideration for presentation and publication. By submitting a manuscript, the authors confirm that the work is original, has not been published previously, and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere during the review period. Any violation of this policy will result in immediate rejection of the submission. All submissions must be made electronically through the designated submission portal before the specified deadline. Submissions received after the deadline will not be considered for review.
